Judge Kane announced the decease of the Hon. John Banister Gibson, late Chief Justice of Pennsylvania, a member of this Society, who died on the 3d inst.

Mr. Edward Miller presented, for the Cabinet of the Society, a specimen of silicate of zinc, from the Saucon valley, in Lehigh county, Pennsylvania. The bed of this ore is extensively worked;—the product being sent to New York, for the manufacture of zinc paint.

A discussion ensued with regard to the deposits of this mineral, in which Mr. Miller, Prof. Frazer, Dr. Boyé and Mr. Trego took part. Dr. Boyé remarked that he had found the carbonate of zinc also in the above mentioned locality, and had ascertained it to be that mineral by chemical analysis.

Prof. Frazer, from the Committee on Dr. Kane's Expedition to the Arctic regions, reported that the services of a competent astronomical observer had been secured to accompany the expedition;—and presented a list of names as subscribers to a fund in aid of such services, amounting to $425, principally contributed by members of the Society.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Trego, which, after being read and considered, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Curators be authorized to exchange with other societies or individuals, such duplicate or supernumerary specimens of coins, medals, minerals and other articles as they may deem unnecessary to be retained in the Cabinet of the Society, for such other specimens, of equal value, as they may consider desirable to be added to the Society's present collection;—and that the Curators be instructed to make report to the Society of their proceedings from time to time.
